

RAJARAJESWARI COLLEGE OF NURSING, BANGALORE

Report on World Health Organization Day

Theme: “My health My right “

On 06/04/24, Raja Rajeshwari college of nursing has celebrated World Health Organization (WHO) Day with great enthusiasm and participation from students, faculty, and staff members. The event aimed to raise awareness about global health issues and promote healthy lifestyles among the college community.

The day began with an inaugural ceremony where the significance of WHO Day was highlighted, emphasizing the importance of health promotion and disease prevention on a global scale.

Throughout the day, several activities and programs were organized to engage participants and educate them about different aspects of health. These included, Mime, dance, flash mob and singing related to the theme “My health My right “

The WHO Day celebration concluded with a closing ceremony where participants were encouraged to pledge their commitment to adopting healthier lifestyles and contributing to the promotion of health in their communities.

Overall, the WHO Day celebration was a resounding success, fostering a sense of awareness, responsibility, and solidarity towards global health issues among the college community. It served as a reminder of the importance of collaboration and collective action in achieving the WHO’s vision of “Health for All.”